

The Charles and Joan Alberto Italian Studies Institute is pleased to present

HEARING VOICES

A Film by Emmy-nominated and Award-winning filmmakers
Marylou and Jerome Bongiorno

Wednesday, February 12, 2020

6 p.m.

Beck Rooms, Walsh Library

Seton Hall University

Inventor Antonio Meucci and General Giuseppe Garibaldi reunite as ghosts at the home they shared in the 1850s in Staten Island, NY. The two hash out their respective legacies of the invention of the telephone and Italian Unification while debating a bigger question: why do we fight?