NJ Historical Commission Names 2013 Award Winners

Posted on November 3, 2013 by Mandi Magnuson-Hung

From the New Jersey Historical Commission:

The New Jersey Historical Commission has announced its 2013 Award Winners. Dr. Michael Rockland has received the Richard J. Hughes Award for lifetime achievement and contributions to New Jersey history; and author and journalist Holly Metz is the recipient of the Richard P. McCormick Prize for her book, Killing the Poormaster: A Saga of Poverty, Corruption, and Murder in the Great Depression.

Awards of Recognition were given to Leslie Bensley, executive director of the Morris County Tourism Bureau, for her long-time support and promotion of Morris County's history and historic sites; filmmakers Marylou and Jerome Bonjiorno for their significant role in producing public history documentaries; Historic Morven, Inc.
