RUST: HOW TO BREAK THE CHAINS OF POVERTY IN U.S. INNER CITIES

JOIN US FOR A FREE
SCREENING AND DISCUSSION ON RUST
WITH FILMMAKERS
MARYLOU AND JEROME BONGIORNO

SATURDAY, JUNE 3, AT 2 PM
ON THE SECOND FLOOR OF THE LIBRARY

The Nutley Public Library is pleased to welcome back prior ECLAP-funded artists, Emmy-nominated, award winning filmmakers, Marylou & Jerome Bongiorno. The duo will screen their latest Newark documentary RUST (runtime 86 minutes) which tackles solutions to poverty and racism.

The filmmakers, who speak at global and local venues, will then lead a lively discussion and Q&A, addressing questions about the filmmaking process and their process in documenting social justice issues.

No registration is required. For more information and to view the trailer please visit nutleypubliclibrary.org/rust.

This program is made possible in part by funds from the New Jersey State Council on the Arts / Department of State, a Partner Agency of the National Endowment for the Arts and administered by the Essex County Division of Cultural and Historic Affairs.
